Our lives are filled with much more serious events than this one that cause anxiety, but they all add up and we feel like we are suffering from something we cannot quite describe. When we are anxious, our demeanor suffers and our relationships with others suffer which adds to our anxiety. Also, and most importantly, our spiritual life is degraded and we lose sight of our true purpose. We find ourselves focused on ourselves and mundane issues of a material world trying to get everything around us to go the way we want it.

This is the basic problem with our materialistic way of life coupled with our self-centeredness. We want everything to obey our commands - including Mother Nature. People today have made their lives difficult, because they are not satisfied with a few things, but are constantly chasing after more and more material goods.

So how do we deal with this fact of modern life? We can't all go off to a monastery and escape. The key is to not set such high expectations out of this material world and set our hopes instead on the life to come. We can learn to strive less for material well-being and begin to strive more for spiritual well-being.

Those who would like to live a genuine spiritual life must first of all be satisfied with a few things. When their life is simplified without too many concerns and nuances, not only will they be liberated from the worldly spirit, they will also have plenty of time available for spiritual things. Otherwise they will tire themselves out by trying to follow the fashion of the times; they will lose their serenity and will gain only great anxiety.

All the fancy things we pile onto our life add to its complexity. You can do something as simple as install a new carpet and then find you begin to worry about it getting soiled and start tormenting all who come through your house. Just because of a carpet!

We can learn to seek simple and practical material goods, things that make our life easier with less hassle. This is not a simple task but one worthwhile pursuing. Keep life simple and you will find you have more energy for the spiritual life which will bring you great rewards and joy instead of anxiety.

Christian morality and justice inspires us to identify things we do not really need. Seek a smaller house rather than a large one. Identify at least one activity that you can withdraw from to make more free time in your life. Identify one relationship you need to sever. Make time for and build a habit of daily prayer. Simplify your daily menu and follow the fasting guidelines. Repent continually and participate in the life-giving Sacrament of Holy Communion. With a little effort you can begin to change your way of life towards one that demands less rather than more. The monetary surplus that emerges you can use to help those who are disadvantaged and who cannot meet the minimal material needs of daily life. This is the right path. This is the Christian way of life

Annual Harvest Sale

It's that time of year again. We will be holding our annual Harvest Sale on Saturday, October 15th. In order for the sale to be a success, we will need everyone's help. Our church is blessed as we have so many fantastic bakers, cooks and farmers in our congregation. Please plan on donating items that are your specialty; whether that is baked goods, homemade pickles, jellies/jams, fruits/vegetables, flowers. The only thing holding you back is your imagination of what to donate. Remember YOUR church depends on everyone making donations.

There will be at least 3 baskets and a handmade afghan donated for raffles.

Also we will need people to help man the tables on the day of the sale.

Setup will be Friday, October 14th from 3 to 8 p.m.

The Harvest Sale will be Saturday, October 15th from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

If you have any questions, please contact one of the co-chairs; Leigh Maxa or Cathy Lichanec.

We're celebrating!!!! St. Edward School in Stafford Springs was awarded "Best Private Elementary School" by the North Central News Readers! It's not too late to be part of our amazing educational family! Our children are our most precious gift and, we long to provide them with the best of everything. Growing up at this time in our world can be frightening and unnerving. All of us at St. Edward School recognize the difficulties that children face today. Our Whole Child Academy seeks to provide children with the best possible environment - truly an extension of your own family - fostering a strong basis in Faith to help guide and protect through the storms of life, an awareness of our emotions and reactions to successfully navigate different experiences, a greater understanding of how we learn as individuals to help promote optimal academic success, and assurance that each is loved as a unique and special child of God. No where else can this truly holistic approach to the development of a child occur. If you are interested in learning more about how your child, grandchild or special young person in your life can benefit from the great gift of a St. Edward School whole child education, please call the school office at (860) 684-2600. We'd love to share with you all that is awaiting your child and to help make this amazing experience possible! Financial assistance is available.

We will be meeting on the SECOND TUESDAY of the month from 6:00-7:30 pm at the Stafford Public Library. Our next meeting is Tuesday, September 13, 2016.

We welcome individuals who would like to attend and knit, crochet, or quilt these much needed prayer shawls. (We'll even teach you to knit or crochet!) Join in a ministry that brings God's grace, peace, comfort, love, joy, and hope to those in need. If you cannot make the meeting but want to make prayer shawls at home, we'll even pick them up. If you or your pastor knows of anyone who could use a prayer shawl, we'll arrange for one to be picked up. Please contact Kathy Aborn at 860-684-9484 for information or pick up arrangements. ALL ARE WELCOME! ☺ September / October Service

Attention all Lay Assistants and Volunteers that help with services

This includes Council Members, (Tellers), Ushers, Worship Assistants and Readers.

Please let me know dates and days of when you aren't available to serve in your position. It's much easier to find a replacement (when available) prior to typing the Monthly Service Schedule rather than finding a replacement after the schedule is typed or you just don't show up.

You can hand me a piece of paper when we see each other at church; or send me an email at walterkovaciny@cox.net or send me the information via snail mail. Just don't tell me verbally. Thanks to everyone for their assistance with this. Walter Kovaciny, part of the newsletter team.
